

BYLAWS OF THE UNIVERSITY OF COLORADO MUSEUM

PREAMBLE

The University of Colorado Museum is an academic unit of the University of Colorado. The University of Colorado Museum was established by the Board of Regents of the University of Colorado in 1902.

Mission: The University of Colorado Museum fosters exploration and appreciation of the natural environment and human cultures through research, teaching, and community outreach. We provide academic training for graduate students in Museum and Field Studies; build, conserve, and interpret research collections; and offer exhibits and educational programs for the University and the public.
